

Centerstone Expands Partnership with Cohen Veterans Network

The organizations, committed to providing mental health services to military veterans and their families, celebrate first year of operations in Tennessee and announce plans for a new clinic in Florida

NASHVILLE, Tenn. and JACKSONVILLE, Fla., August 29, 2019 — Centerstone, a national leader in behavioral healthcare, and Cohen Veterans Network, a not-for-profit philanthropic organization that serves post-9/11 veterans and their families through a nationwide system of mental health clinics, today announced plans to open a clinic in Jacksonville, Florida.

Centerstone and Cohen Veterans Network first partnered on the Steven A. Cohen Military Family Clinic at Centerstone in Clarksville, Tennessee, which opened in August 2018. In its first year of operation, the clinic has provided mental health services to more than 700 military veterans and their family members and hosted more than 110 community events. The clinic recently held its one-year anniversary celebration.

“We are excited about growing our partnership with Cohen Veterans Network,” said Dr. Bob Vero, Centerstone Regional Chief Executive Officer, Tennessee and Georgia. “We have seen the positive impact of the Cohen Clinic at Centerstone and are pleased to broaden services to individuals in northeastern Florida, delivering care that changes people’s lives.”

Jacksonville is home to 42,000 post-9/11 veterans. The Steven A. Cohen Military Family Clinic at Centerstone, Jacksonville will offer high quality, comprehensive mental healthcare to veterans, regardless of discharge status or role, and their families as well as to families of active duty military, including spouses, partners, children, parents, siblings and caregivers.

“Centerstone has been an exceptional partner for the Cohen Veterans Network, and we are thrilled to work together to ensure that veterans and their families get the care they deserve,” said Dr. Anthony Hassan, President & CEO of Cohen Veterans Network. “We are pleased to announce plans to open a clinic in Jacksonville.”

The 7,500-square foot Cohen Clinic at Centerstone, Jacksonville is set to open in early 2020 and will be located at 7001 A.C. Skinner Parkway, Jacksonville, FL, 32256.

About Cohen Veterans Network

The Cohen Veterans Network is a 501(c)(3) national nonprofit, clinically integrated mental health system for post-9/11 veterans and their families. CVN focuses on improving mental health outcomes, with a goal to build a network of outpatient mental health clinics for veterans and their families in high-need communities, in which trained clinicians deliver holistic evidence-based care to treat mental health conditions. Learn more about the Cohen Veterans Network at cohenveteransnetwork.org

About Centerstone

Centerstone is a not-for-profit health care organization dedicated to delivering care that changes people's lives. We are a nationally recognized leader, providing mental health and substance use treatment, related crisis care, education and support to people of all ages in communities in Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky and Tennessee. Nationally, we offer specialized care for service members, veterans and their loved ones, and develop employee assistance programs for businesses of all sizes. Our research institute improves behavioral health care through research, evaluation and technology, and our foundation secures philanthropic resources to support our work. For more about Centerstone, please call (888) 291-4357 or visit centerstone.org.

Media Contacts:

Scott Hudson, Steven A. Cohen Military Family Clinic at Centerstone
931-221-3872 / wayne.hudson@centerstone.org

David Schrader, Centerstone
615-460-4148 / david.schrader@centerstone.org

Anthony Guido, Cohen Veterans Network
203-569-0284 / anthony.guido@CohenVeteransNetwork.org