

Connections

Connecting with people through home, recovery and community

Connections will help individuals, including youth, experiencing homelessness and substance use disorders (SUD) or co-occurring disorders (COD) in Franklin, Jackson, Union and Williamson counties.

Services include:

- Housing services, including recovery housing
- Case management
- Evidence-based direct SUD, COD, and trauma treatment
- Assess to federal income supports
- Screenings and assessments
- Individualized and integrated substance use treatment and planning
- Linkages to primary and specialty care
- Peer and wraparound recovery supports such as employment and education services, benefits engagement and enrollment, hepatitis/sexually transmitted infection/HIV screening/education/counseling

For more information, visit centerstone.org or call 877-HOPE123.

About Centerstone

Centerstone is a not-for-profit health care organization dedicated to delivering care that changes people's lives. We provide mental health and substance abuse treatment, education and support to communities in Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, and Tennessee and additionally offer individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities life skills development, employment and housing services. Nationally, we have specialized programs for service members, veterans and their loved ones, and develop employee assistance programs for businesses of all sizes. Centerstone's Research Institute improves behavioral healthcare through research and technology. Centerstone's Foundation secures philanthropic resources to support our work. For more information, visit centerstone.org.