

Preventing Youth Suicide:

An immersive training experience for community and youth leaders

---

CENTERSTONE

Recognize

suicide risk using ITS as core guide.

Engage

in conversation in suicide-specific way.

Listen

with empathy for someone's suicide story and personhood.

Assess

for ideation, plan, intent, and each ITS component.

Transition to Care

by making a referral to care.

Evaluate

your experience as a gatekeeper. Encourage others.

Remember the Core Constructs

The Interpersonal Theory of Suicide (ITS)

Centerstone Crisis Services:

Florida - (941) 782-4617

Illinois - (855) 608-3560

Indiana - (800) 832-5442

Tennessee - (800) 681-7444

National Suicide Prevention Lifeline:

1-800-273-TALK (8255)

