Centerstone is committed to assisting you with getting the services you need. To be sure that this is the right right for you, your client has been developed. When the law requires it, and/or if you give your permission in writing, your parent, guardian, or person acting on your behalf may exercise these rights.

Your rights are important and we will make every effort to support you, your loved ones, and our communities in an effort to have safe, accessible, and equitable services. If you have questions about rights or see an area to advocate for change, please reach out to a member of leadership.

Ethical Treatment
1. You keep all rights, benefits, and privileges that the law says you have.
2. You have the right to be treated with respect and receive care that is free of neglect, humiliation, retaliation, harassment, physical, sexual, and/or emotional abuse, and physical punishment. Secusion, restraint, or any form of exploitation, including financial exploitation, is prohibited. You believe that YOU ARE BEING ABUSED, NEGLECTED, OR DENIED IN ANY MANNER, YOU MAY CONTACT THE OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL (OIG) HOTLINE AT: 1-800-366-1453.

3. Services will be provided to you and/or your family without discrimination. Ethnic background, handicapped status (per the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990), HIV status, personal and social beliefs, being of a certain race, sex, religion, sexual orientation, or age will not make any difference in the quality of services you get.
4. Clients who cannot pay Centerstone fees may apply for a Client Assistance discount. Clients seen at a National Health Service Corps (NHSC) approved Centerstone site shall not be denied requested services, and shall not be discriminated against in the provision of services because the client is unable to pay for the services.
5. You have the right to know the names and professional credentials of all staff members who are working with you. You have the right to express your preference regarding your choice of care manager, therapist, or other service provider.
6. Services will be provided with as short a waiting time as possible. We will try to provide services to you at times that are convenient to you and your clients as possible.

Confidentiality
1. All information about you is confidential and will only be released with your written consent, except to the following: If state and/or federal laws require that information be given without your consent.
   a. Personnel: You have the right to be informed of all reports required by law to report evidence of suspected child or elder abuse or neglect; or if you feel threatened or if you feel seriously bodily harm to yourself or someone else.
   b. Records: Our records can also be subpoenaed by the court.
   c. Programs licensed by the Illinois Offices of Health and Family Services. Rights to confidentiality are governed by the Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities Confidentiality Act (740 ILCS 110).
2. Substance Abuse Services records are governed by CFR Part 12.
3. Confidentiality of persons involved with services due to involvement with the following: Department of Children and Family Services is governed by Rule 431.
4. All federal and state laws and regulations regarding confidentiality will be followed, including HIPAA and laws of confidentiality that apply to HIV status.

Justification for restriction of your rights as cited in Chapter 2 of the Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities Confidentiality Compliance Act (740 ILCS 110), the Confidentiality Act, and HIPAA shall be documented in your clinical record. You have the right to be notified of that restriction (s) of your rights. Your parent or guardian and any agency you designate (Guardianship and Advocacy Commission, Equip for Equity, Inc.) shall also be notified of the restriction.

7. If you ask to see your record, you have the right to look at your current file, including any information that has been or will be given to anyone who is giving you services. These records must be looked at by appointment with staff. You have the right to purchase copies of filed documents.

Services
1. You will be involved in the development of your individual service plan, will sign to show that you accept it, and will receive a copy of it. You will be given information that you need to help make decisions about your treatment in a timely manner and it will be explained to you in a manner that you understand. You may at any time seek a second opinion or go somewhere else for treatment.

2. You have the right to attend formal staffing meetings about you. You may be asked to make your request in writing.

3. You have the right to ask for information about any medications prescribed for you by any physician who is providing part of your treatment.

4. You have the right to refuse to be involved in, or be questioned for research.

5. You have the right to informed consent or refusal regarding the composition of your service delivery team. You have a right to be informed of any potential consequences resulting from such refusal.

6. You have the right to end services at any time. Please let us know in advance if you are ending services. You may be asked to provide feedback about the services that you received and the people who worked with you.

7. You have the right to contact the public payer.

8. Services will be provided in the least restrictive environments available.

9. You have the right to refuse services or any specific treatment procedure, including participating in more than one program at the same time, and a right to be informed of any potential consequences resulting from such refusal.

10. You have the right to contact HFS if its designee is designated by HFS or its designee of the client’s healthcare benefit and the process for reviewing grievances.

11. The right to not have your services reduced, denied, suspended, or terminated for exercising any rights.

12. You have the right to have disabilities accommodated as required by the Americans with Disabilities Act, section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and the Human Rights Act (775 ILCS 5).

13. You have the right to withdraw your consent at any time.

Grievance/Complaint
1. If the way that you are being served or have been served by this agency concerns you, you may ask at any time to share your feelings with your service provider, or their supervisor.

2. If you wish to file a formal grievance, you may obtain a copy of the Centerstone Grievance Procedures, which will tell you how to do this. There forms are located in the lobby of all agency facilities.

3. You or your guardian or personal representative, on your behalf, have the right to present written or oral complaints and appeal decisions about your services that you don’t agree with through your service program’s supervisory chain up to and including the Executive Director or equivalent.

4. If you are not satisfied with the action taken by the Department Director, you may appeal the grievance to the Incident Review Subcommittee, which serves as the final stage of review for the agency.

5. If you are still not satisfied with the outcome of the appeal process, you may seek review from the entities listed below.

At each level of the grievance process, the employee responding to the grievance will provide you with a written response regarding the allegations. If you are being considered to have your rights reduced, suspended, or terminated you will be informed in writing to take the appropriate action.

7. Your decision to file a grievance or to appeal decisions regarding the level of process will not result in retaliation or barriers to service.

8. In programs licensed by the Illinois Offices of Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities, clients’ rights are protected in accordance with Chapter 2 of the Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities Code. Any restrictions on individual rights will also be in accordance with Chapter 2 of the Code.

9. If you have concerns about the services that are being provided to you or you are unable to resolve through the agency’s grievance process, you have the right to contact:
